

CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE COST ESTIMATE

October 15, 1997

H.R. 1085

A bill to revise, codify, and enact without substantive change certain general and permanent laws related to patriotic and national observances, ceremonies, and organizations, as Title 36, United States Code, “Patriotic and National Observances, Ceremonies, and Organizations”

As ordered reported by the House Committee on the Judiciary on October 7, 1997

H.R. 1085 would codify, into Title 36 of the United States Code, existing laws related to patriotic and national observances, ceremonies, and organizations, and would refine awkward language and eliminate obsolete statutes. CBO estimates that enacting the bill would result in no cost to the federal government. Because H.R. 1085 would not affect direct spending or receipts, pay-as-you-go procedures would not apply. The legislation contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995 and would have no impact on the budgets of state, local, or tribal governments.
